ALPHA INTELLIGENT LIGHT

FROM SILVA in SWEDEN

What is Alpha Intelligent Light?

Light distribution traditional light

Light distribution Silva Alpha Intelligent Light

Silva Alpha Intelligent Light® is a light distribution technology. It combines a wide angle flood light with a long reach spot light. The unique light image gives the user peripheral and long distance vision at the same time. For a runner, cross country skier or mountain biker this translates into less head movement, increased control, better balance and more speed.

Modular attachment system

The Alpha headlamp is designed for multiple activities. Use it together with the head set for running, orienteering or cross country skiing. Attach it to your bike helmet or handlebar for mountain biking. The battery case fits around the top tube of the bike's frame. An ideal light for Mushing Sports.

If you would like the opportunity to win this light, tickets in the raffle may be purchased even if you are not entering HVSS. Use the entry form above to request tickets.
